Fun by the Fountain Tuesday, May 29

Usher in summertime fun with tasty treats and a carnival atmosphere at Jon Hunt Plaza downtown (in front of the Morris Performing Arts Center), from 5:30 - 7:00 pm. on Tuesday, May 29, 2007! Bring your friends and family and celebrate summer with ice cream, popcorn, music, puppeteers, balloon artists, chalk on the walk, face painting, and more!

Fun by the Fountain is sponsored by Historic Preservation Commission of South Bend & St. Joseph County, City of South Bend, Morris Performing Arts Center, Downtown South Bend, Inc., and U93. It is part of South Bend City Celebration 2007, a year-long festival of events and programs held on the 29th of every month to showcase all that our community has to enjoy. Locales include the Pierre Navarre Cabin at Leeper Park, the Muessel-Ellison & Ella Morris Greenhouse & Conservatories, Howard Park Ice Rink, St. Joseph Co. Public Library, the College Football Hall of Fame, Northern Indiana Center for History, South Bend Regional Museum of Art, Studebaker National Museum, City Cemetery, Coveleski Stadium, and the Jon Hunt Plaza (in front of the Morris Performing Arts Center). Each event has been designed to entertain residents and visitors from ages 3 to 103. Everyone is invited!

Details on each month's event will be posted online at SBCityCelebration.com, the month prior to the event. Information is also available by calling 574.235.9798 or 574.235.9951.

South Bend City Celebration is a collaboration between the City of South Bend and the Historic Preservation Commission of South Bend & St. Joseph County. City Celebration complements the implementation of City Plan, South Bend's new 20-year strategic plan for growth and development, by promoting and building awareness of community assets.
